SUMMER CHALLENGE: guidelines & instructions

1. There is no submission fee for the Summer Challenge.
2. Script submissions must be of feature length (70 pages or more).
3. Your script and application form must be accompanied by a Project Summary, to include the following materials:
 - Log line (one sentence describing your film)
 - Synopsis (50 words max)
 - Plot Breakdown (a more detailed description of the events taking place in your film - 250 words max)
 - Personal Statement explaining why your script is important to you, why it should be made into a film and what your mission for the project is as its writer (250 words max)
4. All entry forms and scripts must be received not later than 26th September 2008. You also need to complete the equal opportunities monitoring form.
5. Your submission materials will NOT be accepted or read via email or in any other digital form. You must post a hard copy of your submission materials to us at the address provided on the application form.
6. All script entries should be in English language and all entrants must have the right to work in the UK.
7. Entrants must not already have literary representation. All rights in the submitted script must be available, controlled by the entrant and not by any third party. Terms for the option and further development of the successful screenplay will be agreed between RISE films and Casarotto Ramsay & Associates on behalf of the successful entrant.
8. We will not be returning scripts in the post, so please do not send anything to us for which there is no back-up copy.
9. If you have any queries, please email us at the email address below. However please DO NOT email your scripts or application forms. They will not be read. summerchallenge@risefilms.com
